

I am writing to ask that the FCC reverse Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. That is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to include a clear connection to the public interest.

Thank you.

-Spencer Day